RE: 155 Belhaven Drive, Los Gatos, California

NEW ADDITION STORYPOLE CERTIFICATION

I hereby certify that I visited the site at 155 Belhaven Drive in Los Gatos in September of 2020 to examine the storypoles and netting set to represent the visual aspects of proposed additions to the new structure.

The new storypoles and netting were measured from the existing structure and compared to plans A1.0 Site Plan and A3.2 Elevations provided by SLCDesign.

My findings are that the proposed addition does not change the existing setbacks, is accurately represented by the story poles, and shows the proposed changes in height and location from existing structure.
